

LUNCH AT THE FRONT PORCH TEA ROOM

Stop for lunch at the Front Porch Tea Room in the charming town of Hallam. Housed in a Victorian home built in 1869, the tea room is surrounded by gardens and old trees, offering a peaceful, elegant escape. Enjoy a leisurely meal served on antique dishes with lace linens and crystal goblets—a perfect step back in time, where every detail adds to the charm and history of the experience.

ZIMMERMAN CENTER & CRUISE ABOARD THE CHIEF UNCAS

Step aboard the Chief Uncas for a relaxing cruise along the Susquehanna River. This elegant mahogany-planked electric yacht, built in 1912 for beer magnate Adolphus Busch, offers a unique way to experience the river while enjoying a piece of early 20th-century history. Several themed cruises are offered throughout the season, making each voyage a different way to experience the river.

DINNER AT JOHN WRIGHT RESTAURANT

Enjoy casual dining at John Wright Restaurant, located in a restored riverside warehouse along the Susquehanna River. The Four Seasons Dining Room is a timbered space enclosed on three sides with glass, offering sweeping views of the river from every seat. Seasonal menus feature fresh, locally sourced ingredients—some even grown on the property during the summer months.
